

Scottish learning activities

Ideas for fun learning about Burns and all things Scottish at home!

Scottish Bake Off

Try your hand at some of these easy Scottish recipes at home, or find your own to try. Share your culinary delights on our "Dyce School" Google Classroom!

Highland Games

Recreate the fun of the Highland Games in your own garden / outdoor space. This link shows you how! Share photos / videos of your fun with us on our "Dyce School" Google Classroom!

Dance the day away

Learn the Highland Fling with The Wiggles, or find your favourite dance to learn from the Scottish Country Dancing Dictionary.

Get Arty

- Learn how to draw a thistle or Highland Cow.
- Try out some of these fun Scottish crafts.
- Learn about the famous Scottish artist "Charles Rennie Mackintosh" here. Draw a rose like Rennie Mackintosh and add colour to your work.

Share your creations on our "Dyce School" Google classroom.

Your clan

Use this sheet to learn more about family crest badges. Use the template to make a crest badge together for your family, or use paper to design your own.

A Burns Supper

- Make invitations for your family to attend a Burns Supper at home.
- Plan the menu and help cook the meal. Or, use this online game to plan a virtual meal.
- Learn and practise some poems, songs and dances to perform after the meal.

Get Moving

Look through this wide selection of Scots language games and activities for "movin about". Connect virtually with your friends / family to play some 'party games' with these activities!

Story Time

- Check out Jojo the Scottish Gnome's audio stories for a good listen.
- Listen to the captivating story of Thistle and her pony.
- Read a range of Scottish poems and prose in the free eBook "Stay at Home".

Bonnie Dyce

Think about your favourite place to go to in Dyce. Create a piece of writing or video telling us about this special place.

Scottish learning activities

Ideas for fun learning about Burns and all things Scottish at home!

Doric Tales and Songs

Tune in to these videos by Sheena Blackhall and Pauline Cordiner, where you will enjoy Doric stories, poems and songs. There are videos for nursery-P2, P2-P4 and P5-P7.

Scottish Alphabet ABC

Talk to family at home to create your family's Scottish / Doric alphabet, using your favourite phrases. This list of Doric words may help you. You can even turn this into your own Scots picture dictionary. Use this template to help you, or make your own.

TV Time

- Enjoy watching some Scottish themed videos:
- Tune in to the Katie Morag stories on BBC iPlayer.
 - Watch some Scottish stories by Chae Strathie.
 - Join in with the story of Tara the Tugboat from the Royal Scottish National Orchestra.

Be a poet

Create a positive poem about a member of staff in school to show you care. Use Scottish words or phrases to theme your poem around our Burns context. Consider sharing your written piece or filming yourself reciting your poem.

Scottish Nature

Take part in the RSPB's Big Garden Birdwatch and enjoy spotting different birds of Scotland. Share some photos on our "Dyce School" Google Classroom.

Robert Burns

Learn all about the life of Robert Burns and carry out some of the fun activities linked to Burns in this activity book.
Share your learning about the life of Robert Burns creatively. Examples include making a poster, creating a rap or making up your own play.

Fitbaa

Many people are excited about Scotland's national team making it to Euro 2020. To celebrate, why not find out about the current team and our national team's history? You can also have fun trying some of the Scottish Football Association's activities on their online hub.

Quiz time QUIZ

Use these questions to hold a family quiz about Scotland. You could even host a virtual quiz! Or, research facts about Scotland and create your own quiz to share with family and friends.

Auld Times

- Watch this Horrible Histories episode to learn more about Scotland in the past.
- Speak to relatives in your family or someone you know who has grown up in Scotland about their childhood memories. Record these memories in a chosen way. This website can help with this.

